

9/11 facts and questions I'll bet you can't answer without being called a conspiracy theorist!

There were at least 86 independent cameras (gas stations, grocery stores, etc...) at, around, and pointed at the Pentagon on 9/11. In fact, it is the most surveiled area in the United States. All of the footage from these cameras were taken by the government. Why would all film footage from all 86 cameras at and surrounding the Pentagon be confiscated and never released to the public? There is one thing that would easily end all speculation into 9/11 – the camera footage from those 86 cameras. If there were nothing to hide, why would the government keep this film footage (the ultimate indisputable proof) from us?

BBC reporter Jane Standley, as she stood in front of the erect Solomon Bros. Building (WTC7), reported live to BBC London that building 7 had fallen 20 minutes before this building actually fell. Streaming news on BBC reported this as well. News footage was then lost, or cut. WTC7 fell minutes later after multiple explosions were heard, after new owner Larry Silverstein admittedly ordered the demolition with the industry term “pull-it”, and after firefighters at the scene counted down to ‘o’. If the collapse wasn’t expected, then why were there news announcements and a countdown? If the collapse was expected, how could demolition explosives be planted in a burning building in less than 8 hours? Why would they then cover this fact up?

George W. Bush lied in a town hall meeting when he said – verbatim:

“T’d ah- was sitting outside ah- the- the classroom waitin’ to go in, and I saw an airplane hit the tower, of-er-a-of-a-T-ya know the TV was obviously on and I, I used to fly myself and I said, well there’s one terrible pilot, and ah- I said it must have been ah- horrible accident. “

Bush was referring here to the day of 9/11, as he was about to go into a classroom to visit and read to children. The problem is, the video footage of the first plane hitting the Twin Towers wasn't aired on broadcast TV until the next day, September 12th. So, the president could not have seen what he said he saw. As you might remember, Bush was told about the second plane inside the classroom, interrupting his classic “My Pet Goat” reading.

Osama Bin Laden has never been charged with any of the crimes of 9/11. On the FBI's most wanted list, Bin Laden is wanted for other acts of terror, but not 9/11. He has never been indicted with any crime related to 9/11 in the 8 years since the so-called ‘attacks’. Why is this? Because there is apparently no concrete evidence relating Bin Laden to 9/11.

Osama Bin Laden has a history, as an asset for the C.I.A. His asset name is actually Tim Osman. In fact, Bin Laden was receiving kidney dialysis at a U.S. hospital in Dubai just prior to 9/11. Interestingly, Bin Laden stated on Al Jazeera Television on September 16, 2001 that he had no knowledge of the attacks. He also stated that the attacks of 9/11 appeared to be carried out by individuals with their own motivation. This interview was only aired once, and then never heard of again.

Marvin P. Bush, the president's younger brother, was a principal in a company called Securacom, which provided security for the World Trade Center, United Airlines, and Dulles International Airport. The company had an ongoing contract to handle security at the World Trade Center “up to the day the buildings fell down.” On the weekend of September 8-9, 2001, WTC tower 2 (the south tower) was powered down – meaning there was no electrical supply for 36 hrs from floor 50 and up... “Of course without power there were no security cameras, no security locks on doors, and many, many ‘engineers’ coming in and out of the tower.” Marvin Bush was in New York on 9/11.

Is ‘Al-Qaeda’ a fitting name for a terrorist group? Well, the widely known definition of ‘Al Qaeda’ is translated in English as ‘The Base’. However, this is not the only translation of the ominous term. There is another. “Ana raicha Al Qaeda” is a colloquial for “I’m going to the toilet”. A very common and widespread use of the word “Al-Qaeda” in different Arab countries in the public language is for ‘the toilet bowl’. This name comes from the Arabic verb “Qa’ada” which means “to sit” – pertinently, on the “Toilet Bowl”. In most Arabs homes there are two kinds of toilets: “Al-Qaeda” also called the “Hamam Franji” or foreign toilet, and “Hamam Arabi” or “Arab toilet” which is a hole in the ground. Lest we forget it, the potty used by small children is called “Ma Qa’adia” or “Little Qaeda”. And so, one must ask... Why would a terrorist group call itself ‘The Toilet’?

In September 2002, FBI Director Robert Mueller told CNN twice that there is “no legal proof to prove the identities of the suicidal hijackers.” Of these supposed Arab “terrorists” named by the U.S. government on 9/11 as the “hijackers”, the following were found to be alive after the events of 9/11: Waleed M. Alshehri, Wail M. Alshehri , Abdulaziz Alomari, Mohand Alshehri, Salem Alhazmi, Saeed Alghamdi, Ahmed Alnami. One must ask how this is possible?

“Saeed Al-Ghamdi is one of three hijackers that US officials have said are linked to Osama bin Laden’s al-Qaeda network.” – BBC

“I was completely shocked. For the past 10 months I have been based in Tunis with 22 other pilots learning to fly an Airbus 320. The FBI provided no evidence of my presumed involvement in the attacks.” – Saeed Al-Ghamdi, Telegraph 23rd September 2001

“Abdel Aziz Al-Omari and Saeed Hussein Gharamallah Al-Ghamdi, are well in life, the first in Saudi Arabia and the second in Tunisia for nine months.” – Wal Fadjri: 21st September 2001

“A Saudi man has reported to authorities that he is the real Abdul Aziz Al-Omari, and claims his passport was stolen in 1995 while he studied electrical engineering at the University of Denver. Al-Omari says he informed police of the theft.” – ABC News

“I couldn’t believe it when the FBI put me on their list. They gave my name and my date of birth, but I am not a suicide bomber. I am here. I am alive. I have no idea how to fly a plane. I had nothing to do with this... The name (listed by the FBI) is my name and the birth date is the same as mine, but I am not the one who BOMBED the World Trade Center in New York.” Abdul Aziz Al-Omari – Telegraph 23rd September 2001 and Asharq Al-Awsat newspaper.

“Al-Omari has since been found in Saudi Arabia and is apparently cleared in the case” – New York Times

Which of these sounds more like a far-fetched conspiracy theory?

(1) A group of angry Muslims who lived in caves with no amenities came to America and took over 4 airplanes with razorblades and then drove these impossibly large planes with limited flight experience into the twin towers and the Pentagon like professional pilots. (Note several were found to be alive after 9/11.)

-Or-

(2) Bombs and demolition explosives were planted in the WTC towers 1,2, and 7 which brought them down at free fall speed into their own footprint: and a fairy tail-like cover-up story was delivered to the world that over 100 stories fell straight down into themselves, concrete and metal completely pulverized, defying all known architectural and natural physics.

The United States has not officially declared war since World War II. The media still fraudulently informs us that we are at war with Iraq, Afghanistan, and now Pakistan. But, instead we are at war with “terror”... an intangible, unfathomable, untouchable, and yet quite a politically useful thing, which has no country, no boundaries, no leader, no limits, no definition, and no rules. War crimes, torture, rendition, indefinite detention, human rights violations, and ordinarily criminal POW treatment are all un-punishable by the Geneva Conventions and Nuremburg Principles simply because we are not officially at war. 9-11 is the catalyst for this and for the legislation that protects these war criminals. 9-11 must be exposed as fraud (which would also expose the “war on terror” as a fraud) in order to charge those deserving with these crimes of war and the unprecedented use of torture. It would also be nice to know who blew up the twin towers, and see them hang!

PNAC (Project for the New American Century) was an American think tank based in Washington D.C. that lasted from early 1997 to 2006. The PNAC’s stated goal was “...to promote American global leadership.” Its members included William Kristol, Dick Cheney, Donald Rumsfeld, John McCain, Paul Wolfowitz, I. Lewis “Scooter” Libby, Richard Perle, Steve Forbes, Robert B. Zoellick, John R. Bolton, Thomas Donnelly, and many others. Section V of ‘Rebuilding America’s Defenses’, entitled “Creating Tomorrow’s Dominant Force”, includes the sentence: “Further, the process of transformation, even if it brings revolutionary change, is likely to be a long one, absent some catastrophic and catalyzing event—like a new Pearl Harbor”. PNAC supported the Iraq Liberation Act of 1998 (bill H.R.4655), which President Clinton had signed into law. In its “Preface”, in highlighted boxes, Rebuilding America’s Defenses states that it aims to: ESTABLISH FOUR CORE MISSIONS for the U.S. military:

- Defend the American homeland;
- Fight and decisively win multiple, simultaneous major theater wars;
- Perform the “constabulary” duties associated with shaping the security environment in critical regions;
- Transform U.S. forces to exploit the “revolution in military affairs”...

FEMA (Federal Emergency Management Agency) was entrusted with the sole responsibility for investigating the collapse of the WTC complex immediately after 9/11. Strangely, FEMA is not an investigative agency. FEMA, in its so-called investigations, actually coordinated the destruction of all WTC debris and evidence almost immediately after 9/11. The structural steel was quickly removed and loaded on ships for transport to be melted in blast furnaces in India and China, and then dumped in the ocean. Most would see this as blatant destruction of pertinent evidence. Meanwhile, FEMA’s investigation of the collapses consisted of assembling a group of volunteer investigators from the American Society of Civil Engineers (ASCE), dubbed the Building Performance Assessment Team (BPAT). This group was headed by W. Gene Corley, a structural engineer from Chicago who also led the fraudulent investigation of the bombing of the Alfred P. Murrah Federal Building in Oklahoma City. (Incidentally, two other bombs reported by multiple news stations and eyewitnesses, which were found by the bomb squad in the Federal Building and defused, were then never heard about again.) Except for an early “tourist trip”, the BPAT assessment volunteers were barred from ever officially entering Ground Zero. They did not see a single piece of steel until almost a month after the disaster. They had to guess at the original building locations of the few pieces of steel they saw. They were only allowed to collect 150 specific pieces of steel for further study (out of millions of pieces). BPAT’s final report called for “further investigation and analysis”, but the report was not released until after the whole WTC site had been cleared, or “scrubbed” of evidence.

While FEMA allocated only $600,000 for the BPAT study, and didn’t allocate any funding for independent or non-biased investigations, NIST’s “Federal Building and Fire Safety Investigation” was funded with an initial budget of $16 million. NIST’s results strongly indicate a cover-up. NIST avoids describing, let alone explaining, the “collapse” of each Tower after they were “poised for collapse.” Thus, NIST avoids answering the question their investigation was tasked with answering: how did the Towers collapse? NIST describes the Twin Towers without reference to the engineering history of other steel-framed buildings, and separates its analysis of WTC 7 into a separate report. By treating them in isolation, NIST hides just how completely different the alleged collapses of these three buildings are. In its own report, NIST reveals that it “adjusted the input” of variables in tests beyond the visual evidence of what actually happened in order to reinforce and save its own hypothesis. NIST also avoids disclosing the evidence of the unexplained sulfidation documented in Appendix C of the original FEMA “Building Performance Study”, which was described by the New York Times as “perhaps the deepest mystery uncovered in the investigation.”

–Ω–

The actual NIST investigation into 9/11 didn’t officially begin until Aug. 21, 2002. But the panel wasn’t official until the NCST (National Construction Safety Team) Act was signed into law on October 1, 2002, by President Bush. This act authorized the National Institute of Standards and Technology (NIST) to establish teams to investigate building failures. The final report on the collapses of WTC 1 and 2 was issued on Oct. 26, 2005. The investigation of the collapse of WTC 7 was completed separately in 2008. One must ask why it took over 365 days to start an official investigation into the most heinous crime in American history. The average time for starting investigations is 1 week. Just think of all the evidence that was lost and covered up in that more than 1-year time. On a personal note: I don’t think it was coincidence that it took NIST 4 and 7 years respectively to release these reports. By that time, by now, most people have or are ready to put the “whole 9/11 thing” behind them. While time doesn’t heal, it does remove the urgency. Thus, I’m sure that most people would have taken any report, no matter how improbable or ridiculous, as the official story. Not that they read it in the first place. But remember, the Patriot Acts and other tyrannical legislation, permissible torture, and indefinite detention without a trial, are law now because of this infamous event. And these laws and acts will affect every one of us eventually. And so, forgetting 9/11 or putting it behind us is not really an option now, is it?

In March of 2007, an extensive set of detailed architectural drawings of the World Trade Center became public through the actions of a whistleblower that worked for the Silverstein Group in 2002 that proved beyond any doubt that the official reports into the collapse of the towers misrepresented their construction. The blueprints provided consist of 261 drawings, included detailed plans for the North Tower (WTC 1), the World Trade Center foundation and basement, and the TV mast on top of the North Tower. The blueprints show that FEMA's report was inaccurate in stating that core columns were "freestanding" when in fact large horizontal beams cross-connected the core columns in a three-dimensional matrix of thick steel. The NIST report into the collapses has also been proven inaccurate by the blueprints, proving the sixteen columns on the long faces of the cores shared the same dimensions for most of each Tower's height. These omitted and distorted facts serve to render the official reports extremely questionable and deserving of a new and impartial investigation. Translation: these beams would have to be cut for the buildings to fall with almost no resistance, like they did.

—Ω—

More evidence of misleading and purposely misrepresented evidence was thus shown by FEMA and NIST. Prior to the release of the detailed architectural drawings in 2007, '9/11 Research' published the Master Plan, dated December 16, 1963. This was a generic blueprint drawing of the WTC prior to its construction, which did not show structural details such as column dimensions. It did, however, show an arrangement of core columns that was later changed when the towers were constructed. The obsolete core column arrangement indicated in the "Master Plan" has been reproduced in other publications such as the book 'Multi-Storey Buildings in Steel'. FEMA and NIST's purposeful reference to these Master Plan drawings pre-dating construction, with the complicit knowledge of their inaccuracies and later changes are just more reasons to dismiss these investigations as fraud and fund a new independent investigation.

James Quintiere, Ph.D. – former Chief of the Fire Science Division of the National Institute of Standards and Technology (NIST), has called for an independent review of NIST's investigation into the collapses of the World Trade Center Towers on 9/11. Dr. Quintiere made his plea during his presentation, "Questions on the WTC Investigations" at the 2007 World Fire Safety Conference. "I wish that there would be a peer review of this," he said, referring to the NIST investigation. "I think all the records that NIST has assembled should be archived. I would really like to see someone else take a look at what they've done; both structurally and from a fire point of view... I think the official conclusion that NIST arrived at is questionable... Let's look at real alternatives that might have been the cause of the collapse of the World Trade Towers and how that relates to the official cause and what's the significance of one cause versus another." Dr. Quintiere is considered one of the world's leading fire science researchers and safety engineers.

“Spoliation of a fire (crime) scene is a basis for destroying a legal case in an investigation. Most of the steel was discarded, although the key elements of the core steel were demographically labeled. A careful reading of the NIST report shows that they have no evidence that the temperatures they predict as necessary for failure are corroborated by findings of the little steel debris they have. Why hasn't NIST declared that this spoliation of the steel was a gross error?” – Question posed to NIST by James Quintiere, Ph.D.

–Ω–

Each of the Twin Towers was pulverized, turned to dust, and totally destroyed in a matter of seconds. In the history of the world there has never been another instance of a steel framed building or skyscraper collapsing from fire. The first and second instance of this was recorded on September 11, 2001 with the collapse at freefall speed of the twin towers. The third instance of this was when WTC 7 collapsed at freefall speed into its own footprint that evening. No airplane had hit WTC 7. Explosions described by firefighters and eyewitnesses as bombs were reported just prior to the WTC 7 collapse.

–Ω–

In addition to the Twin Towers and WTC 7, the World Trade Center complex held buildings 3,4,5, and 6. All of these buildings were severely damaged, first by falling rubble from the twin tower collapses, and then by fires that burned for many hours throughout the entirety of the buildings. Though these buildings were severely thrashed almost beyond recognition, they did not collapse. Yet before collapsing, WTC 7 was hardly damaged at all from debris, and its fires were only sporadic on a few floors, and were oxygen starved (low temperature) throughout the building itself. How is this possible?

Prior to the 9/11 attacks, insiders trading “put options” were placed on United and American Airlines stocks between September 6th and September 10th 2001, at the Chicago Board of Options Exchange. “Put options” are bets that a stock will fall in value in the near future. The owner has the option of buying the stock at a lower rate and then selling them at the highest rate, thus earning a quick windfall profit. Also, a stock option usually costs only a fraction of the actual current stock price due to the risk of a total loss. The put options placed on the two airline stocks were reportedly six to eleven times higher than normal on these days. Other unusual “put option” activity was registered with three European reinsurance firms, Germany Re, Swiss Re, and AXA of France, in addition to World Trade Center occupant Morgan Stanley Dean Witter. This either means that these companies had insider information about the events of 9/11, or were told that their values would drop soon. Either way, this is illegal and treasonous. Martha Stewart has got nothing on these crooks!

–Ω–

At least 17 countries warned the United States regarding intelligence about an imminent attack on America prior to 9/11/01. The cover of the FEMA response manual printed in 1997 and titled, “Emergency Response to Terrorism: A Self-Study”, depicted the World Trade Centers' twin towers in cross hairs. The Military District of Washington D.C.

planned for and simulated a plane crash just like the Pentagon Attack in their “Operation Mascal” planning exercise on October 24, 2000. A Minnesota FBI agent investigating Zacarias Moussaoui testified that he notified the Secret Service weeks before Sept. 11 that a terror team might hijack a plane and “hit the nation’s capital.”

- “There, ah, were, ah, no warning signs that I’m aware of...” – Robert S. Mueller, FBI Director under Bush, September 17, 2001, in a press conference.
- “I don’t think anybody could have predicted that they would try to use an airplane as a missile; a high-jacked airplane as a missile...” – Condoleezza Rice, as National Security Advisor in a press conference shortly after 9/11.
- “Nobody in our government at least, and I don’t think the prior government that could envision flying airplanes into buildings.” – George W. Bush, as President of the United States in a press conference, shortly after 9/11.
- “No specific threat involving really, ah, domestic operation or involving, ah, what happened obviously, ah, the cities, the airliners and so forth...” Dick Cheney, as Vice-President, September 16th, in a television interview.
- “Regrettably, the tragic events of 9/11 were never anticipated or exercised.” – Gen. Ralph Eberhart, Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff and N.O.R.A.D. commander, as reported to USA Today.

“USA Today reports that in the 2 years before the attacks of September 11th, N.O.R.A.D conducted exercises using high-jacked airliners as weapons, and one target was the world trade center.” – Peter Jennings, ABC News.

“What the subject has in his mind is that he will board any American commercial aircraft pretending to be an ordinary passenger. Then he will hijack [the] said aircraft, control its cockpit and dive it at the CIA headquarters. Other buildings targeted: the Pentagon and the World Trade Center.” – Report dated January 20, 1995. Philippine police say this document and others outlining three terrorist plots were given to the FBI in 1995 after investigators here busted a terrorist cell. Two attacks — to assassinate the Pope and to bomb U.S. planes — were foiled, but parts of the last and most ambitious plan, Philippine police say, became reality six years later. Reported on CNN March 11, 2002.

When a crime has been committed, any good investigator would ask the question:

Who benefited? So... first, who didn’t benefit from 9/11?

- Saddam Husain – lost his dictatorship, his country, his power, and was executed, not that he had anything to do with 9/11.
- Osama Bin Laden – lost everything, including his freedom and the protection afforded him by the Taliban prior to 9/11. He’ll never be free again, and will have to hide forever. He can no longer visit other countries for medical care, since those countries would be accused of harboring a known fugitive and “terrorist”.

Al Qaeda – was created, funded and armed by the C.I.A. in the 1980's for the purposes of fighting off a Russian invasion of Afghanistan. Since 9/11, this or any other group would find it impossible to carry out terrorist attacks anywhere in the world, since 9/11 was the catalyst for the Patriot Acts, which allow our government to spy and listen to any phone or computer communications without limit, including yours. This would seriously undermine any group's ability to function as a terrorist cell.

In conclusion, all of the usual suspects of 9/11 gained absolutely nothing from 9/11. In fact... they lost everything.

–Ω–

So... Who then, actually benefited from 9/11?

- Larry Silverstein – He became the leaseholder of the World Trade Center just a few weeks before 9/11, purchasing it for 15 million dollars. He inherited a mandatory asbestos removal problem, which would have cost over 1 billion dollars to complete in the buildings. Also, the twin towers had a low occupancy rate, with many offices un-rented. Before he signed the lease, Silverstein reworked the insurance policy to specifically cover “terrorist attacks”. After 9/11, he received 7 billion dollars as a settlement from his insurance policy. That's a 6.85 billion dollar profit!

- PNAC – This Neo-con manifesto, created and then published less than 12 months prior to 9/11, included the following goals: to transform America into tomorrows dominant force and global constabulary unchallenged by the U.N. and the rest of the world, to abandon the Anti-Ballistic Missile Treaty, to establish permanent military bases in the Middle-East (against the constitution), regime change in countries like Iraq and Afghanistan, and almost all other goals stated in the manifesto which came to fruition only after 9/11. PNAC was like a playbook for the events following 9/11.

- Dick Cheney and Halliburton – Former vice-president and former CEO of Halliburton, Dick Cheney still receives a multi-year differed salary package from Halliburton. In a major conflict of interest, this conglomerate company and its subsidiary KBR were granted multi-no-bid contracts in Iraq, Afghanistan, and at home. In Iraq, KBR leased $40,000 trucks for 5 years, each costing approximately $270,000 at the end of the lease, charged $100 per load of laundry for soldiers who weren't allowed to do it themselves, and charged the Iraqi government as much as $25,000 per month for each of as many as 1,800 fuel trucks that were to deliver gasoline to Iraq after the 2003 invasion, though the trucks often spent days or weeks sitting idle on the border, and were abandoned in the desert for such things as flat tires. The company's policy is called “cost-plus”, meaning that the more KBR spends, the more profit they make. KBR recently received a no-bid government contract to build internment camps in the United States as well. Halliburton's stock has increased greatly since the invasions started. Dick Cheney was a member of the CFR – Council On Foreign Relations before becoming vice president and still working for Halliburton.

- Bush and the Weapons Industry – Since the attacks on Iraq, Afghanistan, and now Pakistan, the weapons and arms industry has reaped billions of dollars in profits from military contracts and foreign buyers. With the goal being to continue the fighting and bombing as long as possible, as in Vietnam, the weapons industry will continue to make guns and bombs and sell them for huge profits to our government. The Bush family, as part of the Carlyle Group, has gained huge profits from the companies manufacture of weapons and military bases since 9/11.

- Oil Companies – Over 60% of the world's oil fields are in the Middle-East. The United States is by far the biggest consumer of this oil, bar none. Without gaining control of these oil fields, the U.S. economy would collapse, since oil is sold almost exclusively in dollars (petro-dollars) and not foreign currencies. It must control the supply to other countries as well, in order to keep the oil sold in dollars. U.S. oil interests have wanted to build an oil pipeline in the Middle-East since the 1980's from the Caspian oil fields through Afghanistan. However, the occupying power in Afghanistan, the Taliban, would not allow this to be built. Only 1 day after the United States installed its own government into Afghanistan after 9/11, a contract was signed to construct this pipeline that the oil companies so desperately wanted.

- The United States Government – 9/11 gave the elitists running our country inside and outside of our government the opportunity to establish unprecedented unconstitutional and tyrannical legislation in the form of The Patriot Acts. This act allows the government to spy on the communications of every citizen, to sample the DNA of any person convicted of any crime, and it allows for the arrest and indefinite detention of any citizen on suspicion, without a warrant, without probable cause, in secret, without notification of anyone including next of kin – and it takes away your right to a lawyer. Many other documents, acts, and laws have been passed that would never have been allowed prior to 9/11 and the “war on terror”, and which completely destroy the Bill of Rights and the Constitution, and even give the federal government new powers of regulation and jurisdiction over individual states. The Homeland Security agency was established after 9/11, and is now sponsoring the Boy and Girl Scouts of America, training them to fight domestic terrorism, similar to the Hitler Youth. By the way, we are all terrorists according to the Patriot Act! Also, please keep in mind that when you elect a President of the United States, you are not just voting for one man, you are voting for the hundreds of appointed (unelected) positions in the highest offices of government and beyond that this one man appoints. Chief of Staff, Secretary's of State, Defense, Treasury, etc... All of these have conflicts of interest before being appointed, having worked in the industries they are selected to regulate, which is why no-bid contracts are awarded. Note: Obama's largest campaign contributors were the banks that received the billions of dollars in “bail-outs” from the so-called financial crisis. This is politics; complete corporate corruption on a global scale.

–Ω–

“Project Achilles: Cell Phone Experiments in a Light Aircraft” – conducted by A.K. Dewdney. This was an experiment with several brands of cell phones and their call connection success rates at differing altitudes, up to 8,000 feet. Almost all of these phones failed to connect, or were unintelligible and dropped at this height. This is primarily due to the fact that cell phone towers extend and receive their signals horizontally, not vertically into the air – since there are no people floating around up there and angels have a direct line... Yet we are expected to believe that multiple, crystal clear calls were connected from 36,000 feet in the air, more than four times that tests altitude. This is impossible, as anybody who's tried to make a call from cruising altitude with a cell phone can attest. Interestingly, on July 15, 2004, American Airlines installed its first cell phone-receiving station onto one of its jets. For the first time, passengers were able to make calls from 36,000 feet in the air. This was not possible on 9/11.

—Ω—

There are a surprising amount of companies and individuals who either appeared to have or admitted to have prior knowledge of the attacks of 9/11:

- Zim American Israeli Shipping Co. broke a lease in order to vacate the World Trade Center just days before the attack. Zim's lease extended through the end of the year and the termination cost was $50,000.
- At Odigo, the instant messaging service, two Israeli employees received e-mail messages two hours before the first World Trade Center assault, predicting the attack. Only 1 person of Israeli decent died that day.
- San Francisco Mayor Willie Brown admitted to having received a warning not to fly on 9/11 from what he described as his airport security late Monday evening, just hours before the attack.
- Salman Rushdie, who is under the continuous protection of Scotland Yard, was prevented from flying on September 11th, 2001.
- Jim Pierce, cousin of President Bush, was scheduled to attend a conference on the 105th floor of the South Tower on 9/11/01, where his company's New York offices were based. But the conference was moved across the street to the Millennium Hotel, because, the story goes, the group was too large for the WTC!
- Newsweek reported: On September 10... a group of top Pentagon officials suddenly cancelled travel plans for the next morning, apparently because of security concerns.
- According to the New York Times, Silverstein Properties had planned to meet on 9/11/01 on the 88th floor of one of the towers to "discuss what to do in the event of a terrorist attack," but cancelled the meeting Monday night (9/10) "because one participant could not attend."

—Ω—

On Sept. 10, Secretary of Defense Donald Rumsfeld declared war – but not on foreign terrorists... "The adversary's closer to home. It's the Pentagon bureaucracy," he said. Rumsfeld said the money wasted by the military poses a serious threat. "In fact, it could be said it's a matter of life and death," said Rumsfeld. "According to some estimates we cannot track $2.3 trillion in transactions..." $2.3 trillion — that's $8,000 for every man, woman and child in America. Rumsfeld promised change, but the next day on 9/11, the world changed — and in the rush to fund the new war on terrorism, the war on corruption and waste seems to have been forgotten.

—Ω—

Michael Chertoff was the second United States Secretary of Homeland Security under President George W. Bush, and co-author of the USA Patriot Act. After 9/11, the families of the victims from that day were given a choice. They could settle out of court, meaning quicker payouts for funerals and the raising of their families, as well as satiating their greed with something akin to instant gratification — or they could wage a costly court battle against the government, involving a lengthy investigation into the causes and culprits of 9/11. Option #2 would have taken a very long time, with no guarantees of financial rewards. Therefore, in the end, at least 97% of the victim's families chose to settle out of court: choosing money instead of an proper investigation. Thanks to government lawyers like Chertoff, not a single plaintiff has been heard in court, and no government official has been charged with even gross negligence in the case of 9/11.

—Ω—

I could go on... and on... and on... and on... and on... but I think this is enough for our purposes. All we* want is a new investigation, by unbiased investigators, with no ties to any of the above mentioned groups, organizations, governments, or corporations, and with no financial compensation other than billed hours, under penalty of treason! Is that really so much to ask? We have all of this overwhelming evidence. Isn't that enough?

* By we, I mean the group which has recently been dubbed the "Truthers" by the main-stream media. Somehow, the word 'truth' was actually spun into having a negative connotation. This is how ridiculously obscene our media has become... and it works! For when you hear the truth, your first thought is "oh, that's just conspiracy theory!" No... it's truth. Provable, documented, living truth. Perhaps this brainwashing works because of all the television stations, radio stations, movie production studios, newspapers, magazines, and other forms of mainstream media out there, almost all are all owned by a conglomerate of 6 different companies. This is commonly referred to as a monopoly — a monopoly with the most diabolical and purposeful of consequences... a completely ignorant public.

I was raised on Dr. Dobson, and have just sent him a letter requesting his assistance to help me stop loosing faith in the Christian Church. My Mom respects Dr. Dobson as much or more than any other Christian leader, and she is interested to see his response. I only started learning the truth about the 9/11 attacks last fall. It took me an entire year to convince my own parents to listen to me, and begin reviewing the evidence for themselves. Now that they have thoroughly and objectively taken a fresh look into all the available evidence, they too are now aware of how badly we have been deceived. They now fully support my mission to find out what really happened to 2,993 of our fellow countrymen that fateful September morning. My mom is very interested to see if/how Dr. Dobson will respond. Please read my open letter to Dr. Dobson and share your thoughts at.....

Once again, well done! I too find it sad, strange and it also makes me mad that there has been no further investigation into something so tragic. The answer to why this hasn't occurred is pretty obvious though— the people who are blocking further investigation are the very ones involved. What I didn't know was that the families of the fallen victims of 9/11 gave up any "rights" by willingly settling out of court. That is almost as disturbing as the events that day to me. They sold their loved one souls, for money. Shameful. If I'd lost a loved one from that terrible event (my family and I thought we came close, as one relative was missing for almost 2 days), I don't care how long it would have taken— I would have wanted to find out the truth and would not have given up any rights to a trial.

Also, I was told that Al Qaeda was literally translated to "Data" and/or "Base" (i.e.; database— of names of men who have worked for the CIA). People who could be escape goats in the future (dead or alive). It's ludicrous that I too found that a number of the "terrorists" are still alive and were nowhere near the planes that day. But your definition of Al Qaeda is 'painfully' funny— "The Toilet".

What a shame this entire thing really is. I did a piece as well, and I felt as though I'd only scratched the surface of that day (I outline most things you've written here), but it's really good to find logical explanations of the missing links for what I found in my own research.

Again, well written, informative and spot on! You must write more often, that's for sure. I'd like to link your blog to mine... would that be okay? Take care and keep up the EXCELLENT WORK! YOU ARE GIFTED with your vast knowledge and way of words. Please, write more often.

Thanks.

Excellent journalism my friend! I will post a link on FaceBook & Twitter.
Thanks for getting the word out.

Most of the 9/11 victim's families did indeed give up their legal rights for a healthy dose of government issued hush money. There are a few which managed to place TRUTH and JUSTICE above personal greed. Here are their stories. Starting with probably the most famous widow that most Americans have still never heard of.

Beverly Eckert letter as published in USA Today Newspaper.....

<http://www.commondreams.org/views03/1220-04.htm>

"I'll never forget it," Ms. Ashley remembered. "Beverly said, 'Are you going to stand here and look me in the eye and tell me we are not going to have an investigation into the death of my husband and the relatives of all the other people in this room?'"

Here is some interesting new research about the options trading associated with 9-11. The significance of this is that the trading in the airline options is discounted because it was said that some newsletter was talking about the airlines business and recommended selling. Possible. But now this new study indicates that there was also trading on the stocks of the insurers of the WTC buildings. It is not possible to use the newsletter explanation to cover both of these events, the airlines and the insurers.

Therefore, since the 9-11 Commission has already stated that terrorists or people connected to terrorists did not do the trading, it implies that someone else had clear knowledge of what was to happen and thus the assumed terrorists accused of the crime are not in fact the perpetrators.

The original scholarly paper was by Allen M. Potesman, University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign.

“Unusual Option Market Activity and the Terrorist Attacks of September 11, 2001”

This paper concludes with the following.

“Consequently, the paper concludes that there is evidence of unusual option market activity in the days leading up to September 11 that is consistent with investors trading on advance knowledge of the attacks.”

Now, in just the last few months, a new paper has come out which references and confirms the original paper.

In fact, the conclusions are even stronger because they examine European data that shows trading in put options on the companies insuring the WTC buildings.

“Detecting Informed Trading Activities in the Options Markets”,
Marc Chesney Remo Crameri Lorian Mancini

I'm amazed the public has taken this long to figure out what really happened that day. As soon as I saw with my own eyes, on election night, that the whole Bush clan sat in utter shock after the announcement Gore had won. The looks on their faces were burned into my brain. Then the flurry of activity began. There was a phone there. Poppy- Bush immediately began placing urgent looking phone calls. The camera then stopped showing the utter rigging going on at that time.

I knew right then. This country was in big trouble and would never be the same. I even told my husband I wanted to move to another country!

As far as the WTC, as soon as I watched the planes hit, I knew this was a covert operation.

The fact the "terrorists" were identified so quickly. " a car was found parked in the airport where the hijackers supposedly flew. There were papers inside with the identities and some info as to where they lived.."

Oh REALLY????????? If the Nazi regime i.e. Boy- Bush and Dick- the - torturer, had no idea this event was going to happen, how did anyone find the culprits so quickly!! A car parked in an AIRPORT garage? Wow what incredible luck, or our intelligence really improved immediately after the attacks!

Then, as Boy- Bush appeared at the ruins with bullhorn..PLEASE!!!!!!

All this accomplished so close to our eyes most couldn't even see the reality. The Bush Dynasty needs to be stopped. I truly believe they are part of a few who have the system "by the balls."

If you read Russ Bakers book, " Family of Secrets" one will clearly see how long this clan has had their nasty little fingers in shaping policy, in-tell, and massive manipulations for control and massive profits. Not only for themselves, yet for the “Good ‘ol Boy” network of those who scratch their backs. Talk about Boy- Bushes coined phrase, “Axis of Evil?” The axis he described was his regime and the evil flowing throughout.

There are several new-media people (for lack of a better term) who have been revelatory to me, and you are in the top 3. Your research is thorough and bullet-proof. Also, fascinating and engaging. I have recommended you to as many people as I think care (unfortunately, the apathy runs deeper that I suspected). Since listening to Corporation Nation, SO MUCH MAKES SENSE! FINALLY! To have an understanding of what the fuck is going on is priceless. Thank you SO MUCH. I havent seen it, but if you do release Lethal Injection and Corporation Nation on DVD, I'd be interested in buying them in bulk and handing them out. Very nice report.....

Joe....UK...

After reading your insight i must say i have seen over the past few years the same pattern comes through. Conspiracy is not the basis of the information given to us it may well be a fact that these buildings may have held something in them that would change the infrastructure of your country forever.

I know it sounds silly but has no one thought that in the world of things all this could lead to the government hiding something more dangerous to us than we need to know. And yes I am talking extra-terrestrial hear ever thought what would happen if that information came out.

Why would two buildings go down in such a manner and a third go down if something in them needed to be hidden from all of us?

These buildings were altered in a way that destroyed them in a controlled manner this is very evident from all the footage that is on the internet.

But who has the power to order this?

What organisation has the scope to undergo an operation of that magnitude?

That I leave with others to ponder on but the evidence will never come to light because that will have an impact on all of us!!

Who indeed...

The answer isn't so much who as it is what.

Turns out that most "groups" and most political factions are all of the same family – bloodline that is.

And so now I feel like I did years ago when I first started telling people about 9/11; nobody comprehends or believes that the whole game is played by the royal bloodline, that every signer of the Magna Carta, Declaration, US Constitution, and every congressional and presidential law (code) in this country came from the royal bloodline. All presidents, all vice-presidents, congressmen, governors, and most influential historians, authors, actors, singers, entertainers, etc are all of the bloodline – the line of the Plantagenet Kings, the Angevins, of the Kingdom of England and Jerusalem pre 1300's.

So it's not which group, for all groups are part of or set up by the bloodline. A token bit of research and you'll see this is true. It's just that nobody thought to really look for it before. Who'd have thought that Obama and Romney are bloodline cousins, let alone every candidate who runs against each other as cousins, ensuring the line and the power.

So I'm back to square one... being spit at for telling the truth, just like 9/11.

I'm not spitting at you, I'm spitting out re-posts, links, quotes, etc.

re: 9/11:

"Larry Silverstein – He became the leaseholder of the World Trade Center just a few weeks before 9/11, purchasing it for 15 million dollars. He inherited a mandatory asbestos removal problem, which would have cost over 1 billion dollars to complete in the buildings. Also, the twin towers had a low occupancy rate, with many offices un-rented. Before he signed the lease, Silverstein reworked the insurance policy to specifically cover "terrorist attacks". After 9/11, he received 7 billion dollars as a settlement from his insurance policy. That's a 6.85 billion dollar profit!"

* * *Must be coincidence, and not worth remembering.... * * *

Most issues, including wars, boil down to money.

Right now, there's this Spire Law Group, LLP which decided to sue for $43 trillion lost on foreclosed mortgages — and they're complaining about attacks on Bush & friends & faith-based groups. the faith-based groups are the front, and some of the fund-raisers for this, situation.

Unbelievable. I'll blog it.

There's a pride and egotism which gets "off" on pulling things off in public. They get off on power over life and death, and are one sick bunch of what appears to be an utterly evil brood. By the time people catch up and/or organize to expose one thing, they've got the other fires burning on the overall scheme.

And know how to play one party against the other, one religion against the other, (gender, race, you name it) and appeal to the basest in human nature, and reward it.

Anyhow, I'll keep blogging things as I can, but primarily the CAFR material. If anyone has a good idea how to buy, sell, do commerce legally without feeding this beast (taking its "mark" so to speak) [[how to detach from the strawman]] — or at least retain a place to live, some clothes, and food etc. — I'm all ears.

I'm going to write up the lawsuit on the $43trillion missing money which SPECIFICALLY excludes the Bushes, I hope. Here's the link, see about page 20-21:

<http://www.scribd.com/doc/111307429/Spire-Law-Federal-Complaint-in->

New-York ~ ~ ~

After comparing the looting dramatically to Viking raids, and before requesting ONE federal judge as receiver of the returned pillaged funds, of course someone had to exonerate the Bush Administration:~ ~ ~

“This lawsuit is necessary to avoid the looming financial crisis that shall occur as a result of the foregoing theft of $43 trillion-plus. Indeed, former TARP Inspector General Neil Banofsky has warned that another massive bailout will again be required if the money center banks and/or their principals are deemed “too big to jail.”

5. To be specific and to assure no ambiguity, such pillage and plundering – which has transferred wealth of the United States by the sum of more than $43 Trillion to the hands of the Defendants, and each of them – neither George H. W. Bush nor George W. Bush (nor their subordinates) were a part of this plan, because it was hatched and implemented without their knowledge and it is undisputed that the proceeds of the plan were used to pay for the election of Barack Obama and a Democratic Congress in 2008, as well as various other state and local officials who have then taken money personally as a part of the “Viking-like campaign” to steal all assets available to be stolen in the United States.

...The United States of America and its citizens – plaintiffs herein and other victims similarly situated – require the issuance of {{get this}} broad injunctive relief to prevent any further theft and looting absent judicial review by one experienced federal judge acting with full jurisdictional authority as well as with knowledge gained from (and audited by) an independent and experienced court-appointed receiver{{endquote}}

To simplify matters — acc to this — Bush & Faith-based Cronies are GOOD (Catherine A. Fitts then must be Bad for having said otherwise). Obama and his cronies are BAD. (no one stole the election of 2000, either). (Also, Israel is Good and Iran is Bad). This is a real emergency, therefore give all the $43 trillion into the hands of one judge advised by one auditor — after all, that’s the American way, right?

(Sure....) Contrast: (see towards bottom of the post):

I would say too, that “war on terror” was ridiculous. My logical mind had no ‘reason’ to make sense of it. How does a military form a strategy to wipe out a concept? What tactics would make that possible – other than mass brainwashing? – did not mean to slip that one in there – Since many hours of reading about the Real circumstances of the Civil War and the changes in the order and nature of American government, it suddenly occurred to me...

What other sort of war does a fictional entity, WHICH PRESUMES ITSELF TO HAVE THE POWER OF A PERSON – A GOD – THAT ACTS AS THOUGH IT HAS THE POWER TO CREATE – declare war against other than an abstraction similar to itself. I mean: it has no way to lose.

Enjoy all your posts.- they are creative and engaging.
