

Red Pill Sunday School S2 E2 – Strawman Book Pt.1

9 Votes

Greetings programs!

After much hibernation and editing my new shows have arrived and will be posted over the next few weeks, around 15 hours in total.

Here is the first, Episode 2 of Season 2, which is an audio/video blog, which is myself reading, commenting, and clarifying my own new book.

- The Corporation Nation

In essence, after all these years of researching The Corporation Nation and what that means, I have finally come to understand how and why men are incorporated into these legal systems so as to be controlled (governed). Incorporation is the key. What this word actually means will certainly cause a spiritual awakening in you, if indeed you seek such enlightenment, for the very core and purpose of incorporating men is the stripping of the spirit (soul) from the mind and body, therefore to make free will (spiritually-based choice) impossible. To obtain the full essence this understanding, I present to you this master class in what it means to be incorporated (emancipated) into this legal hell we all find ourselves (apparently) trapped within.

To control men as a corporation is to take away the individual spirit (soul), removing the ability for each man to self-govern through spiritual, moral Law, the Law of Nature. Instead, the legal matrix presents a series of amoral choices between its own evils, turning choice into nothing but causality, where all choices uphold the corporation and its false law. He that cannot choose to say no at all times has no freedom of choice.

Enjoy...

Clint could you please post an mp3 file of this. The video you made is probably over an hour long so I can’t convert it online. If you break the movie into hour long chunks I could convert it.

Anyway if you can an mp3 would be great.

Thanks
karl

Lisa not sure who you know I tried it and this one said can't do over 30 min. Jeez a simple mp3 (I'm looking at you clint) could make the lives of band width challenged a lot easier. Thanks for the try but Please clint just break the stuff into one (1) hour chunks or post an mp3-- my hands and stuff are busy but my ears are not. thanks

Clint- thanks for doing this. Why when I was researching empirical and felt I needed to take a further look, emperic was not listed in the etymology dictionary and the word has been around since 1500's? The energy has me getting technical as a check of what I was working on. Had me stunned for a minute.

signature (n.)
1530s, a kind of document in Scottish law, from Middle French signature (16c.) or directly from Medieval Latin signatura “signature, a rescript,” in classical Latin “the matrix of a seal,” from signatus, past participle of signare “to mark with a stamp, sign” (see sign (v.)).
Sigil:
sigil (n.)
“a sign, mark, or seal,” mid-15c., from Late Latin sigillum, from Latin sigilla (neuter plural) “statuettes, little images, seal,” diminutive of signum “identifying mark, sign” (see sign (n.)). In astrology, an occult device supposed to have great power (1650s).
iL: used sign (n.)
early 13c., “gesture or motion of the hand,” especially one meant to communicate something, from Old French signe “sign, mark,” from Latin signum “identifying mark, token, indication, symbol; proof; military standard, ensign; a signal, an omen; sign in the heavens, constellation.”

SIG – A Saxon word signifying victory, is used in names, as in Sigbert, bright victory. In answers to the Greek vix in Nicander, and the Latin vic, in Victorinus. (Webs1828)

VICTORY – noun – [Latin victoria, from vinco, victus, to conquer.] 1. Conquest; the defeat of an enemy in battle, or of an antagonist in contest; a gaining of the superiority in war or combat. Victory supposes the power of an enemy or an antagonist to prove inferior to that of the victor. Victory however depends not always on superior skill or valor; it is often gained by the fault or mistake of the vanquished. Victory may be honorable to the arms, but shameful to the counsels of a nation. 2. The advantage or superiority gained over spiritual enemies, over passions and appetites, or over temptations, or in any struggle or competition. Thanks be to God, who giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. 1 Corinthians 15:54.

NATURE – noun – [Latin from nature born, produced,] 1. In a general sense, whatever is made or produced; a word that comprehends all the works of God; the universe. Of a phoenix we say, there is no such thing in nature. And look through nature up to nature’s God. 2. By a metonymy of the effect for the cause, nature is used for the agent, creator, author, producer of things, or for the powers that produce them. By the expression, trees and fossils are produced by nature we mean, they are formed or produced by certain inherent powers in matter, or we mean that they are produced by God, the Creator, the Author of whatever is made or produced. The opinion that things are produced by inherent powers of matter, independent of a supreme intelligent author, is atheism. But generally men mean by nature thus used, the Author of created things, or the operation of his power. 3. The essence, essential qualities or attributes of a thing, which constitute it what it is; as the nature of the soul; the nature of blood; the nature of a fluid; the nature of plants, or of a metal; the nature of a circle or an angle. When we speak of the nature of man, we understand the peculiar constitution of his body or mind, or the qualities of the species which distinguish him from other animals. When we speak of the nature of a man, or an individual of the race, we mean his particular qualities or constitution; either the peculiar temperament of his body, or the affections of his mind, his natural appetites, passions, disposition or temper. So of irrational animals. 4. The established or regular course of things; as when we say, an event is not according to nature or it is out of the order of nature. 5. A law or principle of action or motion in a natural body. A stone by nature falls, or inclines to fall. 6. Constitution aggregate powers of a body, especially a living one. We say, nature is strong or weak; nature is almost exhausted. 7. The constitution and appearances of things. The works, whether of poets, painters, moralists or historians, which are built upon general nature live forever. 8. Natural affection or reverence. Have we not seen, the murdering son ascend his parents bed through violated nature force his way? 9. System of created things. He binding nature fast in fate, Left conscience free and will. 10. Sort; species; kind; particular character. A dispute of this nature caused mischief to a king and an archbishop. 11. Sentiments are images conformed to nature or to truth and reality. Only nature can please those tastes which are unprejudiced and refined. 12. Birth. No man is noble by nature – verb transitive – To endow with natural qualities... (Webs1828)

HORNSWOGGLE – To triumph over; overcome; beat; bedevil. (Black4)

Hi Clint what about someone going about doing their own private ID after coming out of her my people and renouncing the beast citizenship and going by your real name ?

Do you need ID to be free?

Isn't ID the opposite of freedom?

Is ID Natural (of God)?

One that is actually private (without legal contract) needs no ID, for private ‘subvert’ in fact is like ‘sovereign’ (if you look closer)

Name... Not Âme (Âme=soul, in french) certificate, etc...

‘cert’ is ‘circle/cerclé’, to encircle, to enclose, ‘enserrer’, to grip/twist/contract... (fi is fiducie, trust, confiance)... example: a concert is a contract in a private room for mer-chanting stuff and music... meaning amusing, entertaining....

communication indeed similar to commune and municeps if it is to inform, you know the mother does inform, she fills in a form, she gives form to her bastard child, the fiction... in formation is war and is written on paper or in image...all very interesting purchase, you are exactly right! in french ‘chasse’ is to hunt, so a woodland is a ‘réserve de chasse’ (a natural farm, so you have to pay if you want to convert it into an animal/cereal farm), for hunting only, ‘chasse’ is to chase, we say ‘fusil de chasse’ for a hunting gun... ‘chasse à courre’ for chasing game with hounds... not a funny game, as it is a killing game (‘âme’ is still ‘soul’, G is linked to Power and 6)... so to purchase is to hunt for kill, the game of shopping or chopping... ‘casse/casser’ is to ‘break’... and ‘caisse’ is the ‘cash register’ (a box that could be a casket, ‘caisseket’ or basket... in french ‘a cap’ is ‘une casquette’...)... i love the dance of words...

back to ‘chasse à courre’... the ‘basse-cour’ refers to the kept animal like chickens, rabbits, the easily farmed, raised and cooked in the kitchen... basse-cour is although the petty people and lower rank monarchy followers... as opposed to ‘haute cour’ or ‘high court’, the high powered, that have the power of life and death... and ‘cour’ is ‘course/running’ hence running after game to kill and eat... ‘faire ses courses’ is ‘shopping’ ... in a rush... if you have time, you do your ‘marché’ (market) to a slower pace... but at super-market, you do your super-course, faster... because you don’t have time to bargain, to haggle, you just buy to a set price... ‘marcher’ in french is ‘to walk’... of course ☐
