

Wagging The Dog Part 2: The Story Behind The Story Of Covid-19 (Condensed Cut)

12 Votes

Introducing Part 2 of Wagging The Dog! It is not necessary to watch Part 1 before watching this condensed film, though it would be highly recommend to get that foundation of understanding to this story behind the story.

As I appear to be unable to embed at this time, here are the links for Youtube and for my second and active Red Pill Sunday school ‘channel on Odysee.com.

So what’s In This Film?

To put it bluntly, there is a war against Nature and you are in the middle of it, like it or not. Fight or suffer and die. Those are your choices. An organized and now institutionalized syndicalism called as “science” has infiltrated into governmental agencies, protecting their so-called “science community” and its bio-weaponization “franchise.” To be clear, it’s fully acknowledge that there is no difference whatsoever between basic (bona fide/peaceful) research, that is, what government allows to be oxymoronicallly labeled as peaceful or prophylactic weapons, and biological weapons creation of war. It is the same exact lab process. But if it’s done in the NIH, it’s somehow not called a weapon. Go figure...

After a short introduction, there is no other narration in this 2 hour and 10 minute film. What we do show is a mixture over several yearly meetings of NIH biosafety risk/benefit meetings on biological weapons and synthetic biology. In short, the government and “scientists” that conduct gain of function and other duel use research of concern tell us in their own words, from their own meetings, how an active biological weapons program is disguised as being for the public good and health, for peaceful, prophylactic, and/or for “bona fide” (basic) research. As shown in part 1, they first build chimeric pathogens in the lab through gain of function or other weaponization process, some of these being purposefully “evolved” and mutated into a pandemic and deadly state toward up to 100% of the population (i.e. apocalyptic ends) that would never actually happen in Nature. Once created, they claim to study these pandemic strains for peaceful purposes, for instance, to make a vaccine for what essentially amounts to a virus or other pathogen that does not and will not ever exist in Nature. Admissions lie throughout this film of things you couldn’t have imagined, in casual conversation, like being a fly on the wall in a private function. But these are actually public meetings. And among those admissions... a suggestion that most or all pandemics of the past have indeed been man-made.

In the end, an accidental or purposeful release would make SARS2-Covid-19 look like child’s play.

You won’t believe it until you hear it, from their own mouths.

Once you hear it, you simply cannot ignore it.

Please help to share and spread this free film and please COPY AND REPOST THIS FILM WITHOUT ANY PERMISSION NEEDED FROM MYSELF OR MATTHEW DECARLO. Post and repost as you see fit. Make it go viral, or else you might first.

Special thanks to my partner on this series, Matthew Decarlo, who has sacrificed much of his time helping me with my Bitchute and Odysee channel backups, as well as editing together this condensed version of the much longer Part 2 of this series. If you are looking for all of my latest radio interviews, please see those newer channels, as Youtube has been banning things on my main account. If they ban this movie, please go to these other “Red Pill Sunday School” channels on either of these alternative video sights (Odysee.com, links above).

In the end, this 2 hours of footage was cut from the full version of Wagging The Dog Part

2, which will be out soon enough (weeks?) barring any issues. In that more concise and total story, we take over 100 house of NIH discussion boards and cut them down to 15 hours. While this new condensed film (PRT 2) is powerful and mind-blowing, to have a full education on this not-so-secret Bioweapons program one must invest the time and energy to listen and learn. Only with a full understanding can this be fought against, and to be frank, I can think of no other important and imminent threat or cause to fight for than this. In other words, either you help make this viral and fight for your life or you become victim of something made viral and go extinct.

Yes, it’s that bad...

And no, common trolls and detractors, this is not about spreading unfounded fear. This is about reason, morals, and ethics. It’s about exposing the most deadly threat to mankind that has ever existed – SCIENCE!

I’m open and willing to any and all interview requests to help spread the word.

It’s time to get off your butts people, while you still can!

All I can think is — How wonderfully Powerful Human Beings are that they have to go through all this trouble to try and kill us. GMO’s, Modern Medicine, Chemtrails, fluoridation and other chemicals in our water supplies and the constant barrage of PSY-OPS. However, Covid may be the tipping point. It’s become obvious these various attacks have worked on many.....

Where I'm not seeing something, I guess, has to do with the fact that anecdotally, I'm not seeing many people getting sick; a few that ended up in hospitals did pass away, about 3 that I know of, although with all the controversy around the tests to determine Covid and the fact that the protocol to handle these cases (specifically the use of respirators) has been called into question, not sure what to think. I read that respirators actually exacerbate the condition, and that oxygen concentrators should be the actual protocol. Not well versed there so I'm not sure what to make of this whole exercise. Once you put the words Covid 19 and Coronavirus into the mass consciousness, a severe flu would serve the same purpose?

To me, without diving into minute detail, it looks like this was just the the next step, post 9/11, to achieve their New World Order. I guess, since this was broadcast in advance, to those who saw the documents, I wonder if any virus, either by accident, or purposefully, actually got released.

This is not to say I do not believe Gain of Function research is occurring, it is. But it seems that they did not really need to release any pathogen to achieve this next step regarding mandated vaccines, etc. Much the same as an assassination, faked or not, produces the desired result. Again, there may be a lot I'm not conversant with so wondering what this latest exercise is truly all about.
